BALLABROOIE,
HIGH GROUND,
BANGALORE.

31st October 1923.

My dear Mr. Mirza,

I enclose in original Mr. Ramaswami Aiyar's letter in reply to my D.O. of the 12th instant, enclosing a draft agreement for his consideration. You may remember that the letter as well as the draft were approved by His Highness, the approval being communicated in your D.O. letter of the 12th instant.

I am sending you a copy of the reply that I propose to send and request to be informed if I may despatch it without the formal approval of His Highness as there are no points which require His Highness' sanction.

The original draft prepared by Mr. Cadambi and my corrections appear in the rough draft also sent herewith.

Yours sincerely,

Amin-ul-mulk
Mirza M. Ismail, O.B.E.,
Private Secretary to His Highness
the Maharaja, Bangalore.
